- Implement a classical Christian curriculum, incorporating classical literature, history, and philosophy
- Create engaging lesson plans that align with the school's educational philosophy
- Foster a positive and respectful classroom environment that encourages intellectual curiosity and character development
- Provide constructive feedback to students and actively engage in their academic progress
- Collaborate with colleagues to enhance interdisciplinary learning experiences
- Participate in school events, extracurricular activities, and professional development opportunities

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Education, Humanities, or a related field (Master's degree preferred)
- Majors in Literature, History, or Latin are preferred
- Prior experience (2-5 years) teaching humanities at the secondary level
- Familiarity with classical Christian education principles
- Member of a Reformed or Evangelical Church
- Commitment to integrating biblical worldview into the learning environment
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to inspire and motivate students and to shepherd their hearts
- Commitment to building a Christ-centered community and culture at Veritas

Benefits

- Medical Stipend and Life Insurance
- Children Tuition Discount
